

Bloom Collective - Casual Event Power Contractor

We're on the lookout for a power-savvy, food truck legislation-aware legend who can support our market team with power set-up, safety checks, and a bit of muscle.

Location: Waikato-based preferred | Casual / Event-based

Time Commitment: 2 hrs (ish) per market (2-4 pm setup)

Availability: Must be available for weekend events / event is weather dependant

What You'll Be Doing:

- Connecting food trucks and stalls to generators or on-site power
- Ensuring correct cabling, load safety, and compliance with food truck legislation
- Identifying and flagging non-compliant vendors when needed
- Assisting with heavy lifting and setup of power gear and site infrastructure

You'll Need:

- Experience with event power, generators, caravan sockets, etc.
- A solid understanding of food truck and mobile trading legislation (or willingness to learn)
- Physical ability to lift/carry up to 15kgs
- A proactive, safety-first mindset
- To be reliable, punctual, and good under pressure
- A friendly yet proactive demeanour

Bonus If You:

- Have worked with food vendors or at other markets/events
Know your way around three-phase, single-phase, and caravan plugs

This is a paid, contract role. One market at a time.

There may be an opportunity to increase hours as the markets scale.

Hours of Work:

Saturdays from approximately 2pm to 4pm ish, with occasional additional hours as needed. Specific dates for Bloom Collective are as follows. Times and Dates may require flexibility on some occasions, eg weather cancellations. Please only apply if you can attend these dates:
